GET TO KNOW THE PRO!

Brett Aronson USPTA, RSPA

Coach Brett comes to CCTC with an impressive background! He played NCAA Division I Men's Tennis at Cleveland State University, earning rankings as high as #2 in Singles and #1 in Doubles. A graduate of The Ohio State University, Brett has taught at top clubs like Kirtland Country Club, Cleveland Racquet Club, and Chagrin Valley Athletic Club. He has also coached Avon Lake High School's Varsity teams, leading them to strong conference finishes.

Brett enjoys teaching all skill levels, from juniors to adults, in both private and group settings. When he's not on the court, Brett enjoys tech hobbies and spending time with his family and girlfriend.

CLUB BULLETIN BOARD

Look for the bulletin board in the main hallway. Players can connect with others to find a tennis or pickleball match or organize a semi-private or group drill! It's a great option for new members looking to meet players. Alternatively, contact USTA Coordinator Joe at cctc.joe@gmail.com to learn about USTA teams and other opportunities.

PROGRESSIVE UNIFIED DOUBLES EVENT

CCTC will host THRIVE Through Tennis' Unified Event on Saturday, January 4, 4:30pm. Unified Doubles pairs one player with a disability and a partner without a disability to compete against teams of similar abilities. This event will feature progressive play for all ages and abilities. If you are interested in participating as a Unified Partner, spectator or making a donation to the program, contact event coordinator, Mary Vanucci at 440-838-5600
